50 c a Year.

NO. 1.

VOL. I.

BEREA, MADISON COUNTY, KENTUCKY, JUNE 21, 1899.

THE CITIZEN

T. G. PASCO. EDITOR and MANAGER.

Published at the office of

THE CITIZEN, Berea, Ky.

OUR PLATFORM.

This paper aims to bring the best reading to every fireside. Reading is a great thing, of crime or horror, but the imortant news-the news from apital, from our soldiers in ar off islands, from our neighors everywhere. For the oung folks we have a story and a Bible lesson; for housevives, a few new ideas each veek which should lighten heir labors; for the farmer ome valuable hints which from his land and cattle.

We propose to get the best such practical and important cemetery. matters and pass them around among our readers. The re-sources of Berea College are Baptist Church ot for its students alone. The ime step into the largest Col- Burial Sunday. ege library in the State. and Mrs. James Anderson has been se has engaged several of the seriously ill for the past two week nost distinguished i structors She is now better. nost distinguished illistructors in the College to take charge of special departments in the paper. Those who are visited by The Citizen will know what is going on in the world. Every week it will tall them any worth knowing.

Hiram Richardson is beginning to look quite like himself again after look quite like look quite like himself again after look q worth knowing.

It is every man's friend. ds for the things which ent all-temperance, rift, kindness, enterprise, d education. And we ask who believe in these things subscribe for THE CITIZEN.

the old. It has at least two points another year. superiority. It is a weekly and it en the students are way from win's early garden vegetables.

Personals

Tutor Matheny studies in Oberlin

Rev. H. M. Penniman a spending few days in town. Mrs. Frost returned Satarday from trip to New England. W. D. Smith goes to the Bible Inrte, Chicago, for the summer. Kate Coddington is spending meks in Jeffersonville, Ind.

R. L. Brandenburg, of Boone e, is in Berea for Commence-

Misses Wood, Brooks, and Tal

partlett fell dows stairs at dies Hall last Sunday and dislo-ed her right shoulder. Rev. H. J. Derthick and vife leave is week for a month's viet among latives and friends in Ohio

Mrs. J. A. Allen, Misses 14tie E. d Lottie F. Woodford, of Winches-, are here for Commencemen

Hubert Scott, of Marysville O., ared Saturday to spend the amme th his uncle, Rev. M. K. Paso.

Rev. R. G. McClelland, of rederown, Ohio, is spending a fe days guest of Mr. and Mrs. Osprne. Ira B. Penniman he been sick for the past week Mrs. uan is improving, after long urday from Ann Arbor, Mich. He es Rankin, Jennie Hanson, Paddock, will spend a few weeks visiting in this Mr. Gordon Green, of Middlesboro',

Miss Mary Dee Rankin, of Piqua, O., is visiting Miss Jennie Hanson, and other friends here during Com-

Miss Margaret Eliott leaves direct-Ill., and Indianapolis, Ind.

Miss M. Ella Richardson, of Park City, Utah, was married on June 14, but it makes a big difference to Mr. William Doidge. The Citizen what you read.

THE CITIZEN brings, first of wishes.

Mr. and Mrs. Teeters are enjoying a visit from Mr. Teeters' mother Mrs. E. E. Teeters, and her daughter, Washington and the State from Auburn, Ind. They spend sev eral weeks here.

Mr. J. W. Ames left Monday for Arizona where he goes to try the effect of the climate on his health. By his departure Mr. Welch loses a very efficient clerk. It is hoped that the change of air will soon restore him.

LOCALS

Will Tatum comtemplates moving vill help him to make more to Berea, that he may educate his

A very fine monument was erected deas that can be found on all last week on the Ames lot in the Berea

We learn with regret that Bro. Parsons has resigned his charge at the Nannie Martin, daughter of Mrs.

CITIZEN is pledged to no se, J. M. Hart, and T. G. Pa interest the Berea vistors at Richmond

Will Watkins is employed in a saw mill four miles southeast of Bares.

TIZEN and we hope that the stu- April for employment in Fontenelle, nts will feel even a live er interest Wyoming, is enjoying his new work. the new paper than they ever had He hopes to come back for school in

The prodigal and his sister, James ns every week in the year. THE Chaney and Mrs. Baker, have returnizen never takes a vacation and it ed to their father's house, where three Ill serve as a weekly sews letter times a day they are feasting on Ed

Our esteemed contemporary, The Pantagraph has again changed editors. Judge Tipton goes into the revenue service and T. C Adams is at the editorial helm again.

Misses Rankin and Hanson and Mesers. C. L. Hanson and R. E. Paddock enjoyed a very pleasant evening at a house party with Miss Crookes, of Kingston, last Friday.

All will be interested to learn that Bro. Fee has so far recovered that he has made a short business trip to Richmond. Even a dislocated shoulder cannot stop the indefatigable Jno. G. Fee.

Prof. Marsh, Stanley Frost, O. E.

where they will attend the Y. M. C.A. Conference. Miss Embree is attending the Y. W. C. A. Conference held at the same place.

In the Essay Contest in the Forestry Class, the first prize, Hough's Elements of Forestry, was awarded sake of our navy, (2) for our commerto James Washburn, of Bracken Co., Ky. The second prize, Bryant's Forest-Tree Culturist, was won by T. T. Simmons of Florida.

Prof. C. H. Poage, of Eliott Institute, Kirksville, Ky., is said to be an applicant for the Berea school this year. Miss Kate Coddington, who has taught the school so faithfully for several years, seems to be the logical candidate for the position of Principal.

Miss Fairchild entertained a few Messrs, C. F. Hanson, E. A. Chapin, and T. G. Pasco.

The Lester mill has been sold to Josiah Burdette, who contemplates putting in a saw and otherwise extending his business. Such so indusly after Commencement for a visit of try should pay well here and will be a ome weeks with relatives at Paris, decided advantage to the town. If such employment could be furnished, many more young men could attend

COMMENCEMENT NEWS.

Exhibition of the Music Department.

Among the feasts of good things of hibition of the Music Department came first in order of time last Thursday night. There was a good attendance of students, but only a few citizens knew that a free concert was to be given, and so many missed a good ticipate eagerly Mr. Mann's violin sotime. THE CITIZEN will henceforth los, and the solo with which he closed "fill a long felt want" by giving due notice of such passing events.

Owing to the illness of some of the members the exhibition was largely a then dismissed us with the benedicpiano recital. Mrs. Marsh and Misses Todd, Eliott, Miller, Yocum, and Paddock rendered a large and varied program of piano-forte music in a very acceptable manner. Miss Eliott's vocal solo, "Thou'rt Like a Flower," was very effective, and Mr. Pope's 'cello solo was highly appreciated. ditor of this paper can at any Tevis, died suddenly last Saturday. Mr. Mann's concerto from Dancla won the rapt attention of all. Everyone was disappointed when a vigorous recall failed to secure an encore. Mr. Mann's work as a violinist is always earnest and intelligent.

Address before the Lit-

Richmond The introdu a address was along the line of at once; yet here were the Good Citisenship. The good citizen urged to wait. The Students' Job Print, with Tap is distinguished from the worthless May we stop a moment and sak if Creases, will soon occupy the fast or indifferent one by several characters. Some of you young men and your food of Hanson Hall, thus having a taristic qualities which are entirely some of you young men and your women have been working here would really and really timen he must obey the law and re- school and college to get an education et its power. This he does by up- which will fit you to bear a worthy holding it at all times. He is inter- part in life. It seems a waste of time The subscription list of The Re- Will evidently is not afraid of work. ested in things about him, and he is to keep at it month after month. er has been purchased by THE Estmer Hudson who left Berea last just, merciful, and firm in his deal- Why not take a short cut through Pine Photographs at Reasonable Prices. be willing to work. We must not be is, "Tarry ye in the city (tarry ye in filled with the idea that any kind of Berea-which is your Jerusalem) honest labor is dishonorable. The until what is lacking for your prepspeaker emphasized the fact that all aration for your work is supplied. good citizens contribute, by some You will not lose by it; a right start kind of labor, to man's well-being.

> Anniversary of Literary Societies

Failure to properly advertise was the reason so few citizens attended the annual exhibition of the Literary Societies last Friday night. Chapel was nearly filled with students, but there would not have been standing room if a newspaper had informed the general public of the lit-erary feast that was offered.

After Miss Mary Hoopes of L. L. S had entertained the gathering audience with a guitar solo entitled "Blue Bells of Scotland," Prof. L. V. Dodge offered the opening prayer.

Homer Martin, Pres. of Alpha Zeta

Miss Wood, Berea's deservedly popular soprano soloist then sang "As the Dawn," by Cantor, winning gencrous applause. The first oration was by D. F. White, of Alpha Zeta, on the subject, "Shall we Expand?" He argued that the Expansion policy was both American and Constitutional, and should be adopted (1) for the cial interest, (3) for the Christianizing of the dwellers in the new territories. Mr. White has a clear strong voice and a good presence. The impassion ed close was too highly wrought. Miss Ida L. Brooks' recitation of 'Aunt Nancy's account of a Fashionable Recital" was a good example of the most valuable type of public strument, and submitting yourself to speaking—the conversational style.

The Mandolin Club made a decided hit with a selection called the "Bezauberuna March" and the audience friends last Saturday, in honor of Miss would not be satisfied until they "Estudiantina," being enjoyed even more than the first.

Edwin R. Embree of Phi Delta then old favorite speech of "Wolsey on Being Rejected by the King." Marion H. Frederick, of Alpha Zeta, who was next on the program with an original poem gave a stirring sonnet on Freedom. Mr. Frederick's talent is well known in Berea and Clay County. We are glad to give to our readers in this issue a poem by this young man.

After a charming piano solo by Miss Todd, Miss Maggie Jones gave a pleasing recitation of a funny poem by Paul Dunbar entitled "Deacon Jones"

The oration by O. B. Tibbs of Phi Delts on "Monuments" won the unusual honor of a burst of applause in Commencement week, the annual ex- the midst of its delivery as the orator gave a masterly tribute to John G. Fee. Mr. Tibbs in his ability to handle an audience shows great promise of becoming an effective orator.

Berea audiences have learned to anthe evening's entertainment was no exception to his uniformly high standard of excellence. President Frost tion and all went home praising the good work of the literary societies.

Baccalaureate Sermon to the Graduates.

A crowded house greeted the Rev W. W. Atterbury of New York City, who preached the Baccalaureate Sermon to the graduating class Sunday morning.

The opening services were conducted by Pres. Wm. Goodell Frost, Ph. D. Vice President Geo. T. Fairchild, LL D., and the Rev. John G. Fee.

The address before the Literary Societies was delivered last Monday evening by Hon. Wm. B. Smith. of The text was Luke 24: 49; "Tarry is three quarters of the journey. You have a day's chopping in the woods;

is the time lost that it takes to sharpen your axe? Tarry ye in Berea until ye be clothed with the needed pow-

But we have not yet got to the kernel of the text. The disciples were not yet prepared for their work. They were attempting the moral conquest of the world. The additional resource.

for this conquest was yet to be given.

They must wait to be "clothed upon with power from on high." The greater portion of the discourse was

To the graduating class: My friends to whom it is my privilege to say a special word this morning, have I misjudged the spirit and aim of this College, in seeking guidance and inspiration for you from the text I have chosen? It matters not what your calling is. If you have but one talent God asks for but the faithful use of that one. Remember that though your lives and lips speak the message it is the power from on high which gives it the efficacy. All is as Tarry if need be ere you go out to work until you have some humble assurance of this divine bestowal. Seek it in earnest prayer, such prayer as

John Knox offered when on his knees

he cried to God, "Give me Scotland or I die." Seek it in self-surrender, not for your own honor, but for God's is guidance. Then from time to time as you prosecute your life work

you will have need of reenforcement of that power from on high.

er for your work.

given to this thought.

nothing without this.

C. W. Gould, '97, arrived here Sat- Rankin. Those present were: Miss- played again—their second selection, TO OUR MANY FRIENDS:

When in need of Furniture or anything recited with a resolute, clear voice the pertaining to Our Line we respectfully solicit your patronage

Polite and Courteous attention and Satisfactory Prices, our only Motto Prompt attention given to Undertaking

BIGGERSTAFF & OLDHAM Corner and and Irvine St. Richmond, Ky.

You Want GOOD GLASSES

F YOU WANT THEM AT ALL. Glasses that are not properly adjusted to your eyes are actually dangerous. I know it, and you ought to know it. I will not attempt to suit glasses to your eyes until I know what is needed. Eyes examined free

A Nice line of Novelties in JEWELRY.

T. A. ROBINSON, Jeweler and Optician. DENTAL SURGERY.

A. WILKES SMITH, D. D. S. Smith Building, Main Street, Richmond, Ky.
Telephone, Residence, No 62, Office, No 60

You can't get your fingers inky if you use the Parker Jointless Fountain Pen. For sale only by P. F. SHROC Stationer When you're in Richmond do not fail to call on

THE RELIABLE" Main Street Confectioner HOTEL GLYNDON BLOCK

For the best Livery Service GO TO HANSON & PASCO'S LIVERY

Go To The BEREA SHOE SHOP

E. B. McCoy, D. D S., For The very best hemlock or oak half soles.

"All kinds of boot and shoe repairs.

"The best and cheapest line of Bibles.
"The Travis Reference Line Bible Studies.
"The REGAL SHOE.

C. H. PALMER.

CENTER STREET ART GALLERY

Up-te Date-Photos.

BURTON. The Photographer,

best it J. C. MORGAN

Dental Su

Office Hours, 8 to 12 A. M.

I to S P. M. National B

Best Pinish at the Lowest Price will make that old suit of yours look like new. # # # # #

Clothing Cleaned, Repaired, and Pressed

It is True

We do mighty talking on the Superior Tailoring of our Clothing, but it admits of it The True Merit is there, and by this knowledge we maintain our confidence in the good-

For Spring and Summer

We offer the most beautiful line of

SUITS and SPRING OVERCOATS

ever seen in this city.

Our Line Of UNDERWEAR, COLLARS, NEGLIGEE, WHITE and. FANCY SHIRTS, CUFFS, and NECKWEAR is always Nobby

Do not fail to see our line of SHOES. We solicit your trade. Come and see us when in town.

COVINGTON & MITCHELL, Richmond, Ky.

  OHIO COLLEGE OF DENTAL SURGERY

Department of Dentistry-University of Cincinnati
Central Ave. and Court St.,
Cincinnati, Ohio.

The College was organized in 1845, and the 45 Annual Winter Session begins about October 10th 1899. Three sessions of six months each are required for graduation. This is the first Dental College. established in the West. It is co-educational, and has a teaching corps of twenty instructors. Its buildings are modern, and well adapted to the requirements of modern dental education, and its clinical are unsurpassed. Optional Spring and Fall Courses in Clinical instruction are also given. Fees are $100 each session. For information and Announcement, address H. A. SMITH, D. D. S., Dean, 116 Garfield Place, Cincipadi, Ohio.

BEREA. . * : : KENTUCKY

TOWNSFOLK TWAIN. In a vision that falls with the falling day, I tread the lanes and the paths of yore; And the village green where I used to play, And the village folk, I see once more.

Ah, ye are there by those purple bars-My townsfolk twain, of those childh hours! The tall professor who hunted stars-

And the little woman who tended flowers He lived in a big house up on the hill, A long way back from the village street; And she in a cot with a crumbled sill, Set down in a tangle of meadow-sweet. There were morning glories up to the eaves, There were riotous roses down to the

There were housekeeping robins among the leaves, That called if the four o'clocks slept too

I met him at times on my schoolward route, And shivered a bit at his frosty bow; That he saw me at all I am much in doubt Or thought me a sheep or a mooly cow!

But was there a moment before the bell?
I stopped at the gate where the lilacs

For a sprig of her southernwood to smell, a crimson rose with a heart of dew

Butterflies, bumblebees, birds and boys,
And shy little girls in shakers quaint,
Frolicked about her with revel and noise.
While she beamed on us all like a dear old saint.
O cool, white lilles! O starry phiox!

O portulaca and larkspur blue!
O bachelor's buttons and hollyhocks—
And pansies! How well I remember you

I've .. beard he discovered some mislaid spheres, Some stellar fugitives brought to bay; And a comet due in a thousand years
In the latter part of the month of May!
I know she discovered a world of cheer
For sorrowing souls that her pathway

That her heart was a garden where all the Love's green plants flourished, untouched

Tou'll read his name in the text books writ, With a learned treatise on solar spots. But hers! Ah, the children remember it! Fashioned and framed in forget-me-nots! They say when I mention my native town—"Why, that is the home of Professor J.!" But I think of my friend in the folia own, who planted roses to give away!

I remember he gave me some sage advice,
The morning I left for my home afar;
And the benefit of a sm'te precise,
As warm as the beams of the polar star!
But she! Ah! she broke with a tender hug
On my frantic wrestle with tears and winks,
And left on my lap for a railway rug,
An amful of fraggant, feathery pinks!

Who planted roses to give away!

An armful of fragrant, feathery pinks Emma Herrick Weed, in Youth's Com-

RANDERERAREDERINGRESERERER A Hand-Shake With Death

By P. Beaufow.

o can tell stories of won-and of deliverances lieve that the day of miracles still en-dured, but I doubt greatly whether any man ever came so close to the dread shadow and escaped in so marvelous and yet so simple a manner as did I about ten years ago, when I was connected with the secret service depart-ment of Scotland Yard, and was looking after the anarchists, who at that time were causing the greatest anxiety by their activity in the direction of violence and crime. Of the escape in question let the lines that follow speak. The terrible explosion at Edinburgh had just taken place, whereby many ersons had lost their lives and many more been injured, and on all sides one heard rumors of still more awful disasters in store.

One afternoon, early in January, the chief summoned me to his room, and said: "Mr. Barrington, I understand you expect to achieve a good stroke tonight, if I am not mistaken."

I smiled as I made answer:. "I have every confidence of doing so. By assuming the character of an Irish-American anarchist, I have discovered some very useful information. Above all, 1 have unearthed a very hornets' nest in Soho, kept by a Russian called Markovski. By arresting the men found in that club this evening, we shall, in all probability, secure several gentlemen who are wanted in connection with the Edinburgh trouble.

"I will tell you my arrangements for this evening. There is to be a meeting at the club of which I have spoken between eight and eight-thirty, and by nine o'clock it is to be assumed that every man will be in his place. I also shall be there in my role as a partisan of the league. Send a squad of men to this address" (and here I handed him a slip of paper bearing the information) "at nine o'clock precisely, and let them arrest every individual on the premises. They had better take me as well, for appearances' sake. This will disarm any suspicion on their part that there are informers in the camp.'

"I see-I see," he answered, quickly. "An excellent plan, Mr. Barrington."

He then jotted down the various details necessary, and I went about my ordinary vocations until day should wane and it would be time for me to take my way to the anarchist club in the role of a member of that terrible organization.

The day passed quickly enough, absorbed as I was with other interesting matters, and shortly before eight I went to my lodgings, and having assumed my usual disguise, took my way to the club. I entered. Slowly the gloomy room filled with the swarthy, evil-looking members, and at length the meeting was complete save for one man, a Russian known as Ivan Menskoff. He was expected to return that evening from Edinburgh, whither he had gone on business connected with the brotherhood. Presen ly a slight murmur ran round the roo and the Russian strode into the aps nt. His brows were contracted

amed with suppressed

Hastily looking from man to man until his gaze encountered mine, he pointed at me and cried, vehemently:

"Seize that man who calls himself Edward Withers. Secure him, and gag him at once. He is a spy-an accursed spy in the employ of the British govern

I sprang up from my seat in order to defend myself from the brutal arms that closed round me, but the battle was an unequal one. Two minutes later, bound, gagged, and helpless, I was pinioned to the wall, the cords being drawn so tightly round my chest that I could scarce breathe.

The men slowly returned to their seats, talking in excited whispers. After a pause, Menskoff raised his hand to proclaim silence, and said, in a deep, ominous tone:

"Comrades, I owe you an explanation of what has just occurred. Know then that during my visit to Edinburgh 1 have learned several things of vital importance to the cause. The first is that this man Withers is a dangerous spy and that his acquaintance with us has been an official trick which in a few minutes we shall repay heavily."

He paused, and then continued: "The second thing I have discovered is this: that at nine o'clock to-night the house will be raided, and every man of us present arrested."

A hoarse cry rose from the men, and l could not repress a slight glance of amazement. Menskoff understood my expression, for he came towards me, and striking me in the face said, wasp-

"Aha, then, my good Mr. Withers. you do not know, evidently, that we also have our spies among the police force even as you have yours among ourselves. Our own informers are as watchful and as clever as yours, and by their agency has all this knowledge come to me. What think you of it, my friend; what think you of it, hey?"

He struck me again, very brutally. The malignity of his glance and the harsh, set faces of the other men showed me only too plainly that I had small mercy to expect now.

Slips of paper were handed round the table, and each member was directed to inscribe thereon what should be my punishment. Then the slips were handed to Menskoff, who glanced at them with a gleam of satisfaction on his face.

"Edward Withers," he said, addressng me, after a pause, "the sentence written by each member of this meeting consists of one word, 'Death.' Make ready; your time is short."

The anarchist went to the corner of the room where he had deposited his portmanteau. Hastily opening the bag, he took from it a small bomb with a clockwork apparatus attached, also a tiny clock of common appearance. Having deposited these on the table beside me, he addressed his comrades.

"My good brothers," he exclaimed. talking in a quick, excitable tone, "now that you have pronounced the sentence of death it is w zow your se. carried into effect. . . thea, this bomb. I obtained it at our factory at Edinburgh, together with the clockwork gear by which the time of explosion can be regulated. With this little bomb I shall blow our friend to pieces, and it will be well now if you bid him adieu and leave us together. You will also do well to keep in hiding until the present activity on the part of our kind friends, the police, is somewhat abated."

Obedience to this man seemed inevitable. One by one, the whole crowd rose and slowly left the house, each man giving me a look of hatred as he went.

I perfectly understood Menskoff's design in resolving to destroy me by means of the bomb instead of taking up his revolver and dispatching me then and there. The explosion would bring the house to the ground, damage adjoining property, and would be in every way the best "advertisement" that the cause could obtain, whilst at the same time all other informers would tremble when they learned the horrible fate of one of their body. Verily, a fiend's device, and worthy of him who devised it.

When the last footsteps of the retreating men had died away, the are archist leaned over the table where the deadly apparatus was placed and slowly adjusted it. Then turning to me, he xelaimed, with a malignant laugh which was as brutal as a blow:

"See here, my good friend, see here. I have left the bomb and the clock in such a position that you are bound to see both, and as the hands of the clock creep on, you will have the felicity of knowing that each minute is carrying you nearer to the end. And now, shall I tell you, my friend, at what hour, nav. at what minute. I have timed this little plaything to explode?'

It was impossible for me to convey my desire to know, for I could not move my head or open my lips. However, Menskoff appeared to consider an answer superfluous, for, after a minute's interval, he laughed again and cried:

"I have set it to explode at ten minutes to nine. . . . Why not before? Simply because, good Mr. Withers, it will add tenfold to your torture to remember that had ten minutes more been given you, you would have been rescued by your miends from Scotland Yard. . . Aha! I see you change color. You appreciate the tenderness of my little plan.'

The fiend spoke the truth. The terrible cruelty of his scheme burned into my brain. It was hard, unmistakably hard, to be done to death at all-with many hours elapsing between myself and possible rescue. . . . but to know that ten minutes would mean life, and the absence of them death. . . . ah, that was refinement of agony which a man must be in my place to thoroughly and properly appreciate!

The anarchist gave one more glance he apparatus to see that it was all in and then turned toward the door.

"You are admiring my little clock, are you not?" he asked, grinning so wide that his black gums sickened my ight. "Well, it may interest you to know, good Mr. Withers, that you and I are the only two persons in the world who shall have had any use for it.
I bought it in Edinburgh only this morning, little thinking that its career would end so soon.'

Then, tapping the timepiece gently, he exclaimed: "Farewell, little clock. Do thy work well and send this cur to his reward. Mr. Withers, good-night. wish you a pleasant journey to the new country you are about to visit. Adieu!'

With an ironical bow he glided from the room, shutting and locking the door after him. When he had retired shut my eyes and tried to think.

Escape was out of the question. could not move-my bonds were tied so tightly that already cramp was seizing my limbs, and to utter a cry for help was impossible. A dozen times cursed my action in having instructed the chief to send no men to the house until nine p. m., for had they come ear lier all would have been well. But then how was I to have foreseen the horrible events which the night was destined to bring forth?

The clock pointed to 8:30, showing that the whole dread scene through which I had passed that evening had consumed barely 25 minutes, though naturally the space of time had seemed like hours. Eight-thirty. . . . In 20 minutes more, the inexorable clock ticking out the minutes so patiently would have brought its minute hand round to the fatal stroke, the bomb would explode-and then. . . . A feeling of nausea rose in my throat as the hideous reality beat its horror into my brain, and I strove with all my might to shut out the black thoughts which over whelmed me.

For the first ten minutes the agony o waiting was softened somewhat by the hope that something might happen to save me. But when the ten minutes had passed, my soul grew sick, and a dull feeling of resignation took hold of my being. My time had come; my course was run; my hour was at hand Let me face death like a man, for, in spite of my profession, I retained some of the instincts of manhood, and I resolved to meet the end as quietly as though a thousand eyes watched my exit.

Fifteen minutes to nine. . . . The minute hand seemed to linger a long time, and a sudden hope raced through my mind that prechance the clock might stop. But a second later I saw with a pang that my fancy had deceived me. for the cruel hand moved on and now, O Heaven, another minute was registered!

Thirteen minutes to nine! An icy feeling shivered through my body tongue clave to the roof of Ex pe nausea seized me with In the Behold, shores of this world's life. Three minutes more!

My eyes began to swim, a red light was in them, burning them like live coals-a thousand fiendish voices buzzed in my ear-but above them all there rang out the tick-tick of the clock, every second bringing me nearer and nearer to the end.

I tried to grasp a prayer, but my lips were parched and could not have moved even if the gag had not held them rigid; I tried to frame a silent supplication to the Almighty for deliverance, but my mind could not work coherently, and the entreaty languished unmade. A feeling of measureless despair envoloped my soul, and then, as the minute hand of the tiny clock glanced towards the fatal figure, a faintness clutched my being, a white mist was in my eyes, and unconsciousness mercifully claimed my senses.

When I recovered, the room was full of policemen, and Inspector Grierson, one of my best pals, was kneeling beside me, holding some liquid to my lips. His fat, honest face was full of sympathy. as he exclaimed, cheerity:

"Drink that, Mr. Barrington, don't try and talk till you feel a bit better. There!" he added, encouragingly, as the raw brandy brought back a semblance of life to my cheeks-"you're looking livelier already. . . . By George! you've had the narrowest squeak that man ever had in this busi-

"The bomb, the bomb," I asked, faintwhere is it? What has become of it? Why didn't it explode?"

The inspector pointed to a bucket of water in the corner of the room.

"The bomb is there," he answered, quietly, "and can do no harm now. The rascals have escaped, bad luck to them. Did they tell you at what time they had set that little bit of machinery to ex-

"Most certainly they did," I made answer, as I slowly raised myself from the floor; "at ten minutes to nine precisely."

"Then your escape is all the more inexplicable," returned the inspector. for we did not arrive here until nine 'clock exactly, as arranged with you.' "I am as amazed as you are," said I; surely the clock could not have been wrong. It was quite new, for the man Menskoff told me he had purchased it only this morning in Edinburgh."

On hearing these words, Inspector Grierson uttered a low whistle, and an illuminating intelligence shone in his "Great Scot!" he exclaimed, slapping his knee, "I see it all:" "See what?" I shouted, mad with excitement. "See what?"

"Why, the explanation of your salva-You say that clock was bought in Edinburgh. Well, you may not know it; but it so happens that Edinburgh time is just 13 minutes behind the London irned, however, to where I was hour, and to that fact, Mr. Barrington, and greeted me with a mocking | you owe your life this evening."

And so it was -Tit-Bits

A STUDY OF CASES.

Startling Facts Made Plain by Notes Gathered by Missionaries Among Chicago's Foreign Population.

These field notes were made by workers in the Baptist missionary training school, in a part of Chicago where Poles, Russians, Bohemians and Syrians form a large part of the population. Such large aggregations of foreigners are found in our most populous American cities, and are constantly fed by fresh arrivals from Europe. Educating these centers is like making butter with a stream of fresh cream flowing into the churn, or like sweeping a floor over which a stream of mud is crawling.

I here group the cases and make general statements borne out by

1. Public school teachers find the afternoon sessions marked by an increase of stupidity and tardiness. Investigation proves this is largely due to beer drinking at dinner (i: e., the noon meal) or to going to the saloon to get beer for parents.

2. The love of beer is encouraged in children that they may be more willing to go for it. Wherever beer is commonly drunk tobacco and the cigarette abound, and it is difficult to discriminate in the results of these, and impossible to suppress one and allow the others.

4. Drunkenness among boys under 16 years of age is so common as to startle the most phlegmatic citizen.

5. Many, indeed most of the cases of dwarfed and stunted growth which we see among the very poor are directly traceable to doses of liquor given in infancy or to "mistakes" made by a drunken physician. One pitiable case comes to mind-that of a young man 21 years old, but as helpless as a babe of three months. Life was not taken, but who will acquit that drunken doctor of the charge of manslaughter? This division of responsibility is a delicate question, and confronts us everywhere. Take this case: A young man came home intoxicated; his mother spoke reproachfully, a quick blow followed. The next day the son "came to himself." Who killed the mother whose body was robed for the grave; Was it the son who had given himself to the devil vesterday? Were not those who had aided him in this transaction partners in that murder?

THE TERRIBLE SCENE AT NOON TIME

6. The Saturday industrial schools have, each week, instances of children whose cloaks, hoods, shoes or mittens have gone to the pawnshop, not for bread, not for coal or rent, but for liquor. In many, many abodes (I cannot say homes) more is spent each week for beer than for bread, more each month than for clothing.

7. The women in these neighborhoods, as a rule, drink beer as an ac cepted rule of life. It should be remembered most of them come from countries where beer and wine are not classed as intoxicants, and their eyes have never been opened in this country to the relation of beer drinking and drunkenness. Some cases were found where women, despairing in their hopeless poverty, took to heavy drinking as a sort of blameless suicide, while the husband went on with his accustomed daily dram. One case is now a matter of deep anxiety and prayer. A husband whose drunkenness had dragged his family through poverty, homelessness and shame, reformed, but the wife who had struggled and prayed for years to woo him back to sobriety-in an hour of aberration, I am sure-got drunk, and is to-day a confirmed inebriate.

Among these people there is a vague idea that the government is the only source of help, the only responsible power to be cursed. The government is something over, but quite apart from themselves, and while buying their beer tney wail: "Why doesn't the mayor or the head at Washington put a stop to this awful getting drunk?" The week preceding election is one of added funds in many homes where there is a voter. The week following is one of quarrels, arrests and suffering. Is it strange that these embittered mothers bear children predisposed to riot and anarchy?

The mission workers from this school, all women, have little to do with the men on these fields, unless some father falls sick, commits suieide or is arrestad, so these sotes deal only indirectly with the principal transgressors. Not all poor people in these neighborhoods are intemperate or beer drinkers. Not one case was found where poverty had driven the father to drink. Several | gets seven dollars.

mothers, however, ascribed their own downfall to despair because of hopeless poverty.

The training school mission workers have such age and experience in other fields, many of them as public schoolteachers, that their options should have weight.

All concur in the following: 1. It is not wise to present a pledge to a school or class and ask signatures from all at once. Personal instruction should precede such presentation.

2. Pledges against the use of beer, distilled liquor, tobacco and profane or filthy speech should be separate, and separately presented. 3. Pledges for children should read:

"I will try, with God's help, not to use or to help use," etc. 4. In cases where it is probable the child will be forced to break the pledge, his moral welfare is best enhanced ny total abstinence teaching without the pledge.

In my own heart two wishes have grown as I have studied these and similar cases. One is, that there might be a weekly mothers' meeting to each six mothers; and the other, that pipes be laid so that in each block a public fountain or faucet would supply cold, filtered, drinking water, and that in each two or three blocks, by payment of a penny, a pint of hot water could be secured, by which, with use of tablets, soup, malted milk or chocolate, or with tea, anyone, with a speed corresponding to our sense of "rush," could prepare a nourishing, stimulating beverage .-- Mrs. M. E. Burnham, in Union Sig-

THE ANTI-SALOON LEAGUE.

Inaugurate a Vigorous Campaign is New York State-The Saloon Must Go."

The Anti-Saloon league has begun vigorous campaign in New York state. Rev. Dr. J. Q. A. Henry bas resigned a successful pastorate in Chicago to accept the superintendency of the New York branch of the league, and under his inspiring leadership it is confidently expected that much effective work will be done. The "first gun" in this new onslaught on the enemy was fired at Poughkeepsie on Sunday, May 14. Representatives of the league, including Dr. Henry, were in Poughkeepsie on that day in number sufficient to man all the pulpits in the city, and now the campaign will be continued along various lines. The plans and objects of the Anti-Saloon league are explained by Dr. Henry in a letter to the New Voice. The league is a national organization. It began five years ago in the state of Ohio, and has now spread into 23 states, where 60 men are devoting their entire time and energies to the prosecution of this work. Its motto is "The Saloon Must Go," and its ultimate aim the total destruction of the open grogshop as the center and citadel of the corrupting and benumbing influences of the civic and of the pub mnee. It works in and tarough the churches, making them as organi zations the responsible agents, local and in a state-wide way, for temper ance reform. It maintains that the Christian people are primarily the cus todians of the public conscience, that they must set the pace of civic reform and that the problem of the open saloon will never be solved until the Christian forces can be organized, consolidated and hurled against this chief enemy of Christian progress and good government. It is omnipartisan arinterdenominational in its methods. It works with all parties and with all creeds upon the sole condition that willing to stand together upon this one issue-the destruction of the open dramshop. It emphasizes the enforce ment of law. It seeks to drive the liquor business back within the limits of license and law, and to create a public spirit which will demand legislation so full and complete as will not only curb but destroy the open saloor In the enforcement of law it seeks, as a rule, to work only through public fficers who are elected and paid to perform such duties. Local leagues are organized in every church and permanent organizations effected in every community where it is possible. The methods of the league appeal to the generosity of business men, so that financial aid has never been wanting with which to conduct a vigorous and victorious crusade. The temporary headquarters of the league in the state of New York will be at Poughkeepsie. In the fall it is expected that permanent headquarters will be opened in the city of New York.-Christian at Work.

TEMPERANCE BITS.

Olney, Ill., which has not been without aloons in 50 years, has gone dry. Many a ma

Ram's Horn.

Saloon keepers are the government's recruiting officers for the great army of American drunkards.—The Corner-If we church members worked as hard for God as the saloon keepers do for Satan more results might be seen. -Headlight. The German Association Against the Misuse of Spirituous Drinks has issued a circular to the students of Germany asking that the compulsion in the corps and vereins to drink beer be done away with. The report of the London temperance hospital shows that during the year alcohol was administered in that institution to only five cases out of a total of over 8,000, including out-patients. Of the five cases four proved fatal. From a bushel of corn a distiller gets four gallons of whisky, which retails at $16; the government gets $4.40, the farmer who raised the corn gc's 40 cents, the railroad gets one dollar, the manufacturer gets $3.60, the retailer

"Evil Dispositions Are Early Shown."

Just so evil in the blood comes out in shape of scrofula, pimples, etc., 'n children and young people. Taken in time it can be eradicated by using Hood's Sarsaparilla, America's Greatest Medicine. It vitalizes and enriches the blood.

Hood's Sarsaparille Never Disappoint

SHE PREFERRED DEATH FIRST

Would Brave the Horrors of the Deep Before She Would Make a Fright of Herself with a Life Preserver.

She was a very plump woman. There are people who say they would like to be just as plump, but the woman herself is always thinking of ways and means by which ways thinking of ways and means by which her appearance of diameter and circumference may be reduced, and anything that will apparently increase she regards with a dishike that is little short of abhorrence. But if there is one lying that she dislikes more than her comfortable plumpness, it is the water. So, when one day, on a steamer in a fog, there was a collision, she was even more unknown than more useful. more unhappy than most people are under such circumstances, though it was related afterward that she behaved with great coo-ness. There was fortunately no more seri-ous result from the collision than several ous result from the collision than several hours delay, but no one was quite sure in that time what the next minute would bring forth. The husband of the woman with the comfortable plumpness, like the good husband that he was, immediately after the accident found like preservers, and in a matter of fact way started to assist his wife to put one. But he recoiled with such hor.

ter of fact way started to assist his wife to put one on. But she recoiled with such horror that for a moment he was not sure but the shock had deprived her of her senses.

"Put on one of those things?" she almost shricked. "Never! Just look at that fat woman over there with one of them on. She looks a perfect sight."

And she didn't put the life preserver on, and it was her good fortune that she had no reason to regret it.—N. Y. Times.

Big Four Offt! '-Neely's Spanish-Ameri-

Contains 160 superb half-tone engravings, made from pholographs taken of our Army in camp, on transports and in actual service, Spanish and Anterican Gun-boats, Cuba, Havana, Manilla, Handscapes, Architecture; shows the manners and customs of the people of our new Islands; Pictures of our Heroes—Dewey, General Charles King (known as Capt. Charles King, the author), Wheeler, Hobson, Roosevelt, Sampson, Miles, Schley, Shafter, Lee, Brooks, Carroll; Groups of Officers, Cavairs, Artillery, Infantry, Ships, Rifle practice, Spanish Soldiers, Insurgents, Chickamauga, Jacksonville, Tampa, Last Farewell Letters Home, Hospitals, Clara Barton, Rough Riders, Santiago, San Juan, Manilla, the Batatiful Women of Cuba and Manilla.

Manilla.

The Album i 54x8 inches, weighs 12 ounces, printed in finest coated paper.

Sent FREE to any address in the United States, Canada or Mexico for 12 cents in States, Canada or Mexico for 12 cents in stamps or coin, to cover postage and packing. Copy may be seen at any ticket office of the lig Four Route.

Order at onte, as the edition is limited.
Address WARREN J. LYNCH, General Passenger and Ticket Agent, "Big Four Route," Cincipanti, Ohio.

Mark envel be "War Album."

Mabel-Wander what Mrs. does to kill time?
Sue-Why, she has a bicycle and band, so she rivides her time between-blowing them up.—Cincinnati Eng.

and Fever is a bottle of Gnove's Tastelle CHILL Toxic. It is simply iron and quinine a tasteless form. No cure—no pay. Price,50 Pemisine Impartiality.

The Best Prescription for Chills

When a girl is interested in a man, if I san't bowlegged and squint-eyed, she sa he is as "handsome as a Greek god."—N. To Cury a Cold in One Day Take Laxative Bromo Quinine Tablets.

druggists refurfi money if it fails to cure. 25 "It were beter to be right than to president," but it were still better to both.—Virginia Etchings.

> A Story of Sterility, SUFFERING AND RELIEP.

[LETTER TO MRS. PINKHAM NO. 69,186]

"DEAR PES. PINKHAM-Two year ago I begar having such dull, hear dragging pans in my back, mens were profes and painful, and w troubled was leucorrhœa. I to patent med ines and consulted a ph sician, but received no benefit ar could not become pregnant. Seein one of your books, I wrote to you te ing you my troubles and asking t advice. You answered my lette promptly and I followed the direction faithfully, and derived so much bene that I cannot praise Lydia E. Pin ham's Vegetable Compound enoug I now find myself pregnant and ha begun its use again. I cannot praitenough."—Mrs. Cora Gilson, YATE

"I had been sick riage, seven years ago; have birth to fur children, and had tw miscarriages. I had falling of wom! leucorrhos, pains in back and legi dyspepsia and a nervous trembling of the stoman. Now I have none of thes troubles and can enjoy my life. You medicine has worked wonders for me."-I's. S. BARNHART, NEW CASTLE

MANISTEE, MICH.

....... To Greatest Railway Systems of the United States Use CARTER'S INK

"THE EWEY! the world's greatest hero.
LIFE OF WANTED, OUT SIA
WANTED, OUT SIA
OUTFIT PARTY OF CHICAGO SING. CHICAGO

O'S CURE FOR LES WHERE ALL ELSE FAILS, ugts Syrup. Tastes Good. Use Hime. Bold by drugglate.

THE CLAY COUNTY FEUD.

The Pilpot Faction Will Take the Part of the Bakers-John Pilpet Chosen Leader of the Combined Forces

LONDON, Ky., June 15 .- Things look more warlike now than ever in Clay county. Since the troops have left the feudists have the county to themselves, and will no doubt battle it out at the first move on either side.

A new faction is coming into the feud now-the Pilpots. They will help out the Bakers. The Bakers are without a leader, and John Pilpot, the witness who testified that he was "feelin' fer the Bakers," will lead their forces. The Pilpots are the strongest and most feared faction in this section. They number 200 fighters. They are preparing for war.

They have had three dozen Winchesters shipped into the county. The guns arrived Tuesday. Bob Baker, aged 21, cousin to Tom Baker, came to London Wednesday morning, saying he expects to live here, where his life is not in danger. He says he knows who killed Tom Baker.

I happened to be looking at the window where the shot was fired. About a minute before the shot I saw a man and know who he was. I saw him shoot and run. I'm afraid to tell now, but when we get all prepared I'll tell who he is and drop him myself,

"They tried to kill me in Manchester the first night I went there. A newspaper correspondent was talking to me and I was standing behind his chair. I heard something behind me just across the fence in the garden and saw Tom Watt, a colored man, pointing a pistol at me.

"I sat down in a window so he couldn't get at me. Daugh White was making signs to him. I got my brothers together and we went right then to Col. Williams and asked him for JUDGMENT REVERSED.

The Foreign Insurance Companies Wor Their Case Before the Kentucky Court of Appeals.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 16.-About 80 foreign insurance companies, recently indicted and fined heavily in the Franklin circuit court on the charge of conspiring together to fix insurance rates won in the court of appeals Thursday in a decision reversing the judg-ment of the court below. The fines as-sessed against the companies in suis county alone aggregated over $20,000, indictments have been found against them in nearly half of the counties in the state. The opinion of the court was unanimous except udge Guffy. The companies affected ire all those under the juristiction of he Kentucky and Tennessee board of nsurance underwriters. Insurance sen say that had the judgment of the wer court been affirmed all foreign insurance companies would have withdrawn from the Kentucky field.

h Law-B FRANKFORT, Ky., June 17 .- The report of State Inspector Lester, who ras sent by the governor to Knott county, shows that a lawless element has been overrunning the county. A band of 300 regulators have terrorized the law-abiding people. Forty of them are under indictment, but can not be convicted because the band is feared. The inspector recommends legislative action providing for the circuit judge to try these cases. The Survey Commenced.

to secure jurors from distant countles

LANCASTER, Ky., June 16.-Citizens of this county are enthusiastic over the fact that a corps of engineers began at Burgin Wednesday and will make a general survey of the proposed Southern railroad extension from Burgin to Middlesboro, touching this point.

The Lee-Taylor War.

MIDDLESBORO, Ky., June 16.-The Lee-Taylor war is still raging in Harlan county. There has been no more murders but every one goes armed. The feudists keep their actions concealed and have warned newspaper men to keep away.

Accidentally Killed. OWENSBORO, Ky., June 17 .- Roscoe Nantz, son of Curtis Nantz, of this county, while playing near his home, pulled a lumber pile over upon himself Christine McEwan, of Frankfort.

and was killed. Tobacco House Burned.

HENDERSON, Ky., June 17 .- Thomas Hodge's tobacco house at Nebo, Hopkins county, burned at noon. Loss, $45,000; insurance, $35,000.

The Troops Leave for Barboursville. MANCHESTER, Ky., June 18 .- Col. Williams and his troops left for Barboursville, having in custody Al, Dee, Wiley and Jim Baker, who will be jailed at Barboursville. The body of Tom Baker was taken to the old family burying ground at Crane Creek for interment

A Large Calf.

OWENTON, Ky., June 14.-J. W. Mufford has a calf one day old that weighs the largest ever known in this country. | from poisoning.

BRADLEY MEANS BUSINESS.

Governor Is Determined to Restor Peace in Clay County Regardless of Cost.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 17 .- Gov. Bradley has not the power to declare martial law in the county of Clay, where a reign of terror exists as the result of the assassination of Tom Baker last Saturday, but he intends to restore order there, regardless of cost. The governor received a letter Friday afternoon from Circuit Judge Ever-sole denying that no had, as reported, adjourned court at Manchester because of the fear of personal violence. The judge says that court was adjourned because he realized that justice could not be meted out with affairs in such chaotic condition. He says that he will hold a special session in Clay within the next few weeks. The troops will probably be sent back then.

If order can not be restored and those under indictment tried, a special session of the legislature would be the only remedy. Under the present Kentucky law the governor can not even appoint a special judge until the regular judge has refused to sit and the circuit clerk notifies him that the members of the bar have fai'ed to elect. In Clay county the circuit clerk is a member of the White faction, and, if Judge Eversole should decline to sit, he would practically have the selection of his successor. If an extra session were held the county of Clay would either be abolished and divided up among adjoining counties, or the governor would be given power to appoint special judges at will and special grand juries from other counties to go to a lawless county and investigate and find the indictments.

The governor Friday night declared to be false the special dispatch sent out from Lexington Thursday that he was equipping soldiers in Eastern Kentucky to go to Harlan county. The condition there is much better than it is in Clay county.

INDEPENDENT DISTILLERS.

They Are Planning to Build a Mutua Cooperage Works at Louisville-A

Louisville, Ky., June 16 .- Distillers who are independent of the Kentucky Distilleries and Warehouse Co. are planning to build a mutual cooperage works in Louisville. The whisky bar-rel femine, which started shortly after the bourbon trust was formed con tinues. The price of barrels is so high that many distillers have limited their production. This they say is due to the fact that the combine contracted for the output of the large cooperage concerns and practically controls the Maggard took sides with Moore, when Craft pulled a pistol and shot Maggard to death. Craft escaped, but was followed by a furious mob, and if caught will probably be lynched, as excitement is high.

Conincker Found Guilty.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 17 .- In the United States court Thursday Thomas J. Rudder, of Owen county, was convicted of counterfeiting and sentenced to five years' imprisonment. Rudder is said to be a member of an organized gang in Owen county.

Murder Sentence Affirmed.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 16 .- The 14 year sentence of Alex. Pence, of Madison county, was affirmed Wednesday by the court of appeals. He killed James Smith, whom he thought was too imtimate with his wife, who was 16 years old. Pence being 60.

Kentucky Baptists.

Mr. STERLING, Ky., June 16.-The annual meeting of the General Association of Kentucky Baptists began here Thursday. The Baptist churches are entitled to a representation of 2,100 delegates.

Damage Verdict Affirmed.

FRANKFORT, Ky., June 15. - The court of appeals Tuesday affirmed a judgment against the L. & N. Railroad Co., which gives $12,000 damages to Miss

W. J. Stinart Won.

RICHMOND, Ky., June 15 .-- W. J. Stinart of Versailles won the junior oratorical contest at Central university Tuesday night. Subject, "States and Statesmen.

Purchased a Distillery.

PARIS, June 15. - H. D. Haynes, former manager of the Paris Distilling Co., and John H. Trimdle, of Paris, have purchased the Buffalo Springs distillery at Stamping Ground, Scott county. Babe Drowned in a Tub of Water. VERSAILLES, Ky., June 15 .- The twoyear-old daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Joseph Poe Tuesday fell in a tub of inlets about Manila and the position of 200 pounds is five feet eight inches in water and drowned. Last March anthe fleet. It was only after the parting length, and two feet eight inches high, other babe of the same family died that the soldier learned that he had

REVIEW LESSON.

and of the Study in the New Tests ment-International Sanday School Leason for June 25, 1890.

[Specially Adapted from Peloubet's Notes. GOLDEN TEXT.—This is a faithful say-ing, and worthy of all acceptation, that Christ Jesus came into the world to save sinners.—I Tim. 1:15. GENERAL REVIEW.

"I knew a man who went a thousan miles and back, and supported himself at great expense, to be with Agassiz s few weeks at his summer school at Pen ikese. An hour with the great natural ist would have amply repaid the trouble and expense. To even see the master of any department is helpful.

"Christ is the master in the depart ment of spiritual life. We have had six months' study with Him and of Him Happily we do not have to go to Judes He says: 'I will come to you and make my abode with you,' and 'Lo, I am with you alway, even unto the end of the world,' either as to time or space.

"It is not fish we experiment on, s did Agassiz, but souls, ourselves. there can be no more interesting study."—Bishop H. W. Warren, in S. S Times.

In our last quarterly review w studied the first ten chapters of John by chapters, giving a suggestive title to each. It will be well to review those titles first, and then take up the remaining chapters as given here. The first diagram contains the titles as given in the lessons we have been study ing. The second leaves the spaces for such titles as the teacher and scholar may agree upon.

One needs to note not only the title of the chapters, but the progress of the levelopment of the mission of Christ John does not attempt to write a biog raphy of Christ, but brings to our view certain salient points, milestones of progress, essential features to the presentation of the work of Christ, tak ng for granted that we know the life of Christ as recorded in the other Gos

Drill on the whole book by chapters as given in the two reviews. After the class reviews, the outline of the book may be put on the blackboard, and the proper titles called for from the school and written in their places. Then drill the school till every scholar shall have the outline of the Gospel impressed upon his memory. CLASS REVIEW BY DRAWING SLIPS

The Sunday School Times suggest the two following methods of review "Natural curiosity as to what is 'com-ing next' may we taken advantage of in arousing and holding the interest.
"A teacher in the Woodland Presby terian Sunday school of Thiladelph Miss Fredrica L. Ballard, recogn this in reviewing last quarter's les in her class of young children. wrote nearly 50 simple questions, er one on a slip of paper about six inchestions and an inch wide. With the class gathered around her in the Sunday school hour. The first questions one by one in their numbered order and sequence of thought. The first questions drawn was a sequence of thought. drawn was answered before drawing another. The scholar who first answered the question correctly, or more correctly than others, kept the slip. So the method proceeded until all the slipe were drawn, each scholar making an effort to have the largest number of slips at the end. The teacher was not obliged to answer a single question herself. She says that there was the best of feeling throughout, and that the slass was never before so deeply interested in a review exercise."

HIS Practice.

"Say, you knew Deacon Hardway's boy then, who went up to the city to study medicine, didn't you?"

"Oh, yes; I knowed Hen well. What would have the light of feeling throughout, and that the slass was never before so deeply interested in a review exercise."

A BIOGRAPHY. Once, while I lived in the City of Destruction, which Bunyan describes, there came to me John 14:26, who troubled me greatly because he 16:8-11. At first I 11:10, because I 20:9. Then came voices saying 11:27; 12:35, 46; 17:17. Then I joined the noble band described in Acts 17:11. Here I saw a vision of 14:2 and Rev. 21, and found there not only Rev. 22:1-5, but John 14:27, and 15:11, and 15:12, and 15:15. And my soul longed for these things. Then I said: Where is the path? And a voice answered 14:6; and I said: Who shall guide me? And the voice said 16:13. Then I said: I am not fit to go there. And the voice said 3:3, and 3:5, and 15:3. And I said: What do they do there? And the voice said, 13:14, 15; 14:15; 15:12; 17:18, 21. And I said: Lord, how shall I do these things? And the voice replied 15:4, 7. Then the voice asked me 21:16 (f. c), and I replied 20:28 and 21:16 (m. c.).

Ram's Horn Blasts. The fairest joys bloom where the bitterest tears have fallen.

Even in private we are overheard by Carmel faith leads to Carmel victory. It does not change the truth to look at it with colored glasses. The man cannot help being an op-timist who is looking to God all the

It is the goodness you are looking for in others, that will fill your own life.

Instead of loving only those who ove us we are to love also the unloving and the unlovable.

To help our fellow-men requires tact and contact. Every man that will not allow God to regenerate him is becoming degen-

A soldier in Manila, who was ordered to the hospital at Corregidor, was on the beach one morning when he saw a particularly natty old gentleman carrying a cane coming toward him. Th stranger was curious about the hospital and about the fighting with the Filipinos. For two hours they talked and the old gentleman concluded by drawing a map on the sand of the bays and been talking with Admiral Dewey.

The Natty Old Gentleman.

AN OUTING PARADISE.

Long Island is an undiscovered country to a great number of people. Very few realize that the little line shown on the large map is one hundred and thirty-four miles long and of varying widths up to twenty-five failes. Few realize that it was the first section of the Upited States settled by colonists from both England and Holland, and that their towns are to-day full of picturesque houses, beautiful avenues of trees, in fact with all the inland beauties and in addition the various attractions of the seashore.

While the South Shore for a portion of its length is almost level, the North Shore is hilly and heavily wooded. Every portion of the island is well suited for man's abiding place. It has in a most marked degree the three great necessities of life and civilization, Good Air, Good Water and Good Roads. The western section (Queens and Nassau Counties) is crossed in every direc tion by the best of macadam roads; six hundred miles having been built within three years. The eastern end of Suffolk County has excellent roads consisting of macadam, gravel, shell and country roads running through the woods or along the shore. Fishing, hunting, bathing, yachting, cycling and golfing are all indulged in under most perfect conditions.

A NEW EXPERIENCE.

Phebe Ann Was Greatly Worried Over the Actions of the Trees and Houses.

She is only a little black pickaninny who lives down in Georgia. She is under a dozen years in age and until a short time ago had assed all of her life on a rural plantation. Trains and their attendant movements were utterly unknown. Indeed, what Phebe Ann when of anything outside of that plantation would not make the beginning of a primer. She was being educated for a house servant and hence was not permitted to roam to any great extent. She was busy about the big house all day and at night retired to the shack set apart for her family.

Along in the season, for some good reason, it became necessary for the family to move into a city. The little negro girl was wanted, for she had much skill in soothing the childish woes of the heir to the estates. So it was decided that she must accompany the expedition. From the time she entered the carriage to ride to the railway station leads to the same and the carriage to ride to the railway station.

the carriage to ride to the railway station. Phebe Ann was in a state of suppressed excitement. She sat beside "Miss Amy," as she called her mistress, and with staring eyes took in all that passed without com-

When she was taken into the train he wonderment was amusing. She sat gin-gerly on the cushions, looked out of the win-dow and generally seemed uncertain con-cerning the possibilities of the future. She cerning the possibilities of the future. She was silent until the train commenced to move. Then her fear took shape. She saw the landscape passing rapidly before her and her eyes filled, her lip quivered and she anfiled audibly.

"What's the matter, Phebe Ann?" asked her mistress.

"Oh, Miss Amy," wailed the pickanning,
"whah all dem houses and trees a goin' at?"

A seat on the floor was the only means possible to quiet the fears of the child.—Chiesgo Chroniele.

An Iret meaning friend. "Oh, no," answered the dyspeptic, with a jarring, sarcastic laugh. "I hurt all over and don't care whether the sun rises to-morrow or not. But I'm not seriously ill. I'm jocosely, flippantly and farcically ill. I'm going through all the symptoms, but don't mean one of them."—Washington Star.

It should be remembered to the everlasting credit of the men that when a woman becomes famous, no men claim that they were once engaged to her.—Atchison Globe.

Figures may not lie, but estimates are often misleading.—Chicago Daily News.

THE MARKETS.

	THE MARKET	٠.
	CINCINN	TAT	ı. J	on	e 1	17.
	LIVE STOCK-Cattle, commons		50	6	4	50	0
	Sele t butchers	5	00	0
	HOGS-coarse a to heavy	9	00	8	3	4.	A
	M xed packers	3	03	6	3	65	1
	Light shippers	3 (65	64	3	80	١,
1	SHEEPCnoice	3 :	35	a
	LAMBSSpring		50	3	7	20
	FLOURWinter patent GRAINWheatNc. 2 red		30	6	0	75
	N) 3 red	1		GE		75 72
1	CornNo. 2 mixed	+		66		36 14
d	OatsNo. 2			0		2714
	HAY-Prime to Choice	11	00			65
	PROVISION: -Mess Pork		vv	46	9	6214
	Lud			@	4	85
	BUTTERChoice dairy			a
d	APPLE Choice to fancy		00	@		63
	POIATOES New, per 1/2 bbl.		90	8	ĩ	0
1	CHICAGO.			•		-
			65	0	2	75
1	FLOUR-Winter vatent GRAIN-Wheat-No. 2 red					7914
	No. 3 Chicago spring		15			77%
1	CORN No. 2			43)		3 14
1	PORK-Mess		26	0		261/2
1	LARD—Steam	4	60	65	5	0.16
	NEW YORK.		-	-			Н
	FLOURWinter patent	3	85	a	4	00	١.
1	WHEATNo. 2 red,		00			8414
	CORNNo. 2 mixed			0		421/6
	RYE			6		6514
	OATSMixed		03	00		75
	LARDWestern		-	å		2716
	BALTIMORE.			_	Т,
	FIOURFamily	3	30	0	3	10
	GRAINWheat, No. 2 red		773		_	77%	١.
	Southern		70	0		7814	1
	CoraMixed OatsNo. 2 white		39	0		3914
	RyeNo. 2 western		0.0	8		6.16	1
	CATTLE - F.rst quality	4	60	a	4.	90	Е
	HOG Western		00	0		15	1
	INDIANAPOLIS	š.					1
	GRAINWheatNo. 2 red			0		74	1
	Corn-No. 2 mixed			4		32%	1
	O.tsNo. 2 mixed			0		26	1
	LOUISVILLE.			-			1

3 75

FLOUR—Winter potent...... GRAIN—Wheat—No. 2 red.... Corn—Mixed...... Oats—Mixed.....

PORK-Mess..... LARD-Steam....

MISSING THE JUBILEE.

There Was One Woman Wha Seem to Be Ignorant of the Fast That Peace Had Come.

It was in the midst of the peace jubiles and the editor was the busiest individual in town, but the visitor got in on him, and, what was worse, sat down and showed other signs of remaining, none of which the editor encouraged.

"Excuse me," said the visitor of his own volition, "but can't I ask you an important question?"

"What is it?" responded the editor, without looking up from his work, which is always a sign that anybody ought to undergrand.

"Ain't this a peace jubilee we're having in

"Ann't this a peace jubilee we're naving in this town?"

"It certainly is."

"And the peace jubilee is a celebration of peace, ain't it?"

"Exactly."

"And peace means that war is off, don't

"Of course it does."

"And that the olive branch is hanging low, and that everybody is falling on everybody else's neck, and that everybody is glad the war clouds have rolled by, and that good fellowship is now prevailing everywhere, and that every bosom throbs responsive to the gentle coo of the dove, and that there won't be any more scraps, and that there won't be any more scraps, and that everybody is kissing and making up; it means that, don't it?"

"Exactly," responded the editor, pleased to discover so comprehensive a knowledge from such an unsuspected quarter.

to discover so comprehensive a knowledge from such an unsuspected quarter.

"I thought so," said the visitor, rising. "I'll go back home and tell my wife about it. When I left there an hour ago I don't believe she knew it had happened. Goodmorning." And the visitor went out before the editor had time to extend his sympathy.—Washington Star.

The United States a Power for Good A distinguished historian writes, while referring to this nation's advent as a colonizing power, that we represent the "century's political conscience," and that our influence for good over European spheres will be immense. This result was just as inevitable as is the cure which follows the use of Hostetter's Stomach Bitters, the great remedy which is found in every home and drug store throughout the country. It cures indigestion, constipation, overworked kidney and liver, allays nervousness, and tones up the whole system.

Overheard in a Cemetery. Boyle—I am strongly opposed to crema-ion. I think it is carrying things entirely tion. I think it is carrying things entirely too far.

Coyle—How so?
"We would then be compelled not only to earn our living but to urn our dead."—
N. Y. World.

For a refreshing summer bath use soft water. Make a dozen or more cheese cloth bags. Fill them with oat meal, and finely-shaved Ivory Soap, add a little powdered orris root, mix well, and tie up securely. One bag in a tub full of warm water will make a delightful, cleansing bath, and render the skin soft and smooth as velvet.

ELIZA R. PARKER.

Diagnosing Her Case.

He—If I were rich, darling, would you love me more than you do?

She—I might not love you any more, Henry, but I know I would look forward to our wedding day with a degree of impatience wedding day with a degree at present.— that never seems to possess me at present.— Chicago Evening News.

You Can Get Allen's Post-Rase FREE-Write to-day to Allen S. Olmsted, Leroy, cures sweating, hot, swollen, callous, aching feet. It makes tight shoes casy. Cures Corns, Bunions and Ingrowing Mails. All druggists and shoe stores sell it. 25 cents. God help me to keep from under the thumb of the man who rigidly observes the letter of the law, but who has no conception of its spirit.—Virginia Etchings.

For stockings and mittens for the chil-dren, dye the wool with Putnam Fadeless Dyes, Scarlet, Cardinal or Turkey red. Each time you wash them makes them brighter.

If one friend's advice doesn't suit you, keep on asking your friends until one gives the kind you want.—Atchison Globe.

Piso's Cure is a wonderful Cough medi-cine.—Mrs. W. Pickert, Van Sielen and Blake Aves., Brooklyn, N. Y., Oct. 26, '94.

Some people demand that the world not only be patient with 4heir foolishness, but that it applaud.—Atcheson Globe. Hall's Catarrh Cure

Is a Constitutional Curc. Price, 75c.

Some smart men are fools for revenue only.—Chicago Daily News.

When a river has a run on its banks it floats a lot of stock.—L. A. W. Bulletin.

A. N. K.-E

VINCHESTER

Factory Loaded Shotgun Shells.

'LEADER" loaded with Smokeless powder and "NEW RIVAL" loaded with Black powder. Superior to all other brands for

UNIFORMITY, RELIABILITY AND

Winchester Shells are for sale by all dealers. Insist upon having them when you buy and you will get the best.

IKE A GOOD TEMPER "SHEDS A BRICHTNESS EVERYWHERE."

intended, these poisonous substances are sure to be absorbed into the blood, always causing suffering and frequently causing severe disease.

There is a common sense cure.

Are your nerves weak? Can't you sleep well? Pain in your back? Lack energy? Appetite poor? Digestion bad? Boils or pimples? These are sure signs of

From poisons that are al-ways found in constipated

If the contents of the bowels are not removed from poisoning. From what poisons?

They daily insure an easy and natural movement of You will find that the use of

e Ayer's Jarsaparilla

with the pills will hasten recovery. It cleanses the blood from all impurities and is a great tonic to the nerves. Write the Dector.

Our Medical Department has one of the most eminent physicians in the United States. Tell the doctor just how you are suffering. You will receive the best medical advice without cost. Address, DR. J. C. AYER, Lowell, Mass.

"Arkansas Valley

Is an illustrated journal describing

Varied Resources of the Arkansas

Crops are Sure and profit climate exceptionally healthful.
Write for free copy of "Truth,"
also for information about homeseekers' excursion tickets.

Address General Passenger Office, The Atchison, Topeka & Santa Fe Railwe CHICAGO.

READERS OF THIS PAPER DESIRING TO BUY ANYTHING ADVERTISED IN 1TS COLUMNS SHOULD INSIST UPON HAVING WHAT THEY ASK FOR, REFUSING ALL SUBSTITUTES OR IMITATIONS.

WHEN WRITING TO ADVERTISERS please state that you saw the Advertise-ment in this paper.

STRONG SHOOTING QUALITIES.

SAPOLIO

Aids Digestion, Regulates the Bowels, Makes Teething Easy. TEETHINA Relieves the Owsley County.

Owsley County is situated in the Southeastern part of Kentucky, among the foothills of the Cumberional Mountains.

The south fork of the Kentucky River flows through the center of the county, giving an opportunity for the transportation of timber, mineral and agricultural products, to other markets in other parts of the county. Farming, mining and logging are the chief occupations of the people.

Tobacco and stock-raising are carried on to some extent with good gossip. success, vegetables of many different sort are raised extensively in all parts of the county and stored away in cellar for winter use, there being no ready market for them, except a few which are freighted to neighboring count of unexpected trouble. towns, and generally traded for groceries or dry goods.

There has been in the schools of Owsley a slow but substantial improvment for several years as is proven by the gatling-gun. the interest manifested by all classes of people. This is true in a marked degree of Owsley's teachers, who are as a body, wide awake, intelligent men and women, who utilize every oppor- day and broke an arm. He fell especially to the loyal people of these is melted but not brown. Cook until tunity to better fit themselves for about twenty feet and was so badly mountains." their work.

The people of this and Jackson County have shown their appreciation of two of these teachers by electing spring but is a little better now them as County Superintendents.

South Fork.

The results of the examination held at Booneville, May 19 and 20, have been announced and the applicants The Clay County Feud. are looking for schools.

The weather is very pleasant for harvesting.

Corn crops that seemed to be so far behind are coming up to time. Wheat crops are not so good as they were last harvest. While Mrs. Rebecca J. McPherson was here visiting her sister, her horse Mr. Mark Garrette, who brought a pretty little woman into his home last week, surprised not only his home folks, but a majority of the girls who were looking forward to the day when ald live in the little house on ey boys vill soon return from Berea, where they have been fulfilling that commandment, "get wisdom, get understanding," and then you may go to church and home with the preacher. Quite a number of people here are planning to go to the commencement at Berea College the 21st. May they have a joyful visit, as it is the first day of college life for quite a number of them.

Conkling.

There are a few cases of malaria in this section of the country. Wheat crops are very good this year and are ready for harvest. The weather is very favorable for farming; with plenty of rain and sun-

Owsly is coming to the front with good roads as there has been one surveyed up Doe Creek, which will be completed this fall.

Rev. Mr. Ramey conducted the services at the White Oak schoolhouse Sunday. There was a good turnout of people from different localities and all seemed to have enjoyed the sermon!

Mr. T. J. Flanery started for Berea, the 19th inst. and, after attending the heavily armed in large numbers and Commencement exercises on the 21, he will return with his two sons and daughter who have attended school tragedy greatly to be deplored. No there the past year.

Jackson County.

Tyner. Dr. Robinson started last week for Madison County to visit his friends and relatives who are scattered along the border of the "Blue Grass."

A number of our people are preparing for a pleasant trip to Berea to attend the Commencement of Berea College, which promises to be an event of great interest.

Mr. Isaac H. Bowman and son have been for sometime in the lower end industry, music, and religion. of the county engaged in hauling lumber over Big Hill to the Kenmoky Central Railroad.

"Try, try again" is the motto of four boys who are going for the second time to the examination at Mc-Kee, others have joined them and there is oute a long list.

Mr. M. J. Anderson, a hustling great measure, to neighborhood news from outside of Berea. sewing machine agent has lately been among us, visiting relatives, and talking machines. He is a brother of and so we want the news from every Rev. Wm. Anderson, the assessor.

Clay County.

Ogle.

Sunday-school has been progress ing nicely here.

Elijah Lewis and Miss Lisenbee were married recently. Crops are promising but farmers are behind with their work on account of the frequent rains. Wm. Means, one of our merchants, has moved his stand down toward the mouth of Otter Creek. The trouble at Manchester does not affect this part of the county, except in the way of causing excited

Ed Frederick was at Manchester serving on the grand jury. He reports that most of the important work of the grand jury was completed before the court was adjourned on ac-

Wm. Swafford, our postmaster, is still selling goods at the old stand. He has a thousand-shot air-rifle, and must be intending to compete with John Roark, son of Timothy Roark. hurt that he may die.

has been very sick all last winter and lege will have some sure income.

Mr. Frank Spurlock and Miss So-

The letters from London and Frankfort about the Clay Co. Feud, which are printed on the third page those who help themselves. Again of this paper, need some correction and again he says, "Every student and explanation, and we add here a must pay something—he must show brief account of this sad affair.

It was hoped that the Howard-Baker feud in Clay County was ended but men and young women who will be the recent term of circuit court at happier and more useful because of Manchester reopened it. Eversole petitioned Governor Bradley for a militia guard, and a hundred men under Col. Wilson together with help, and it is useless for others to apa Gatling gun were sent to Manches-

Jim, his son, who were taken to Manchester for trial, was begun. They were charged with waylaying the Howard party on Crane Creek April '98 and killing Burch Storrs and Wilson Howard and wounding "Bal" How-

Arguments were presented to the court on the motion for a change of venue. Saturday the motion was granted, whereupon court adjourned. Frost received from him last week:-Tom Baker was out on bail and left the court-house with the boy Jil go to his tent in the court-house yard. He reached it and stood just within the flaps of the tent talking to his wife when a bullet struck him killing him instantly. The smoke issuing from a window of Sheriff "Bev" White's house across the road showed that the bullet was fired from there. Investigation revealed a Winchester barrel still warm but the man who had used it had escaped through the window. No arrests have been made up to date.

Judge Eversole has been called away by the illness of his mother but his substitute, Judge Cook, has adjourned court. The case is transferred to Barbourville. Both sides are more trouble is feared.

The war in Clay county is one can deprecate it more than do the majority of the people of that county. It is by no means just to charge it as a crime upon the peaceful honest, law-abiding people who happen to live in the region where these deeds are perpetrated. Let us rather join hands with them in bringing I about a condition of things which will make such deeds impossible. Let the thoughts of our young people be turned to other subjects than "honor" revenge, revolvers, and passion. Let them become interested in education.

We aim to make the news from surrounding counties a special feature of THE CITIZEN, hoping to fill this page with County correspondence. An unusual amount of College news this week has made it impossible to give as much space to this department as we would like to use, but we expect

It is evident to all that the newsy paper is the paper which will be read, neighborhood near here.

Pearsons' New Pledge.

Everybody is interested in Dr. D K. Pearsons, the great friend of education who is doing so much for the young people of this region. He was born in the mountains of Vermont in 1820, and became interested in Christian education through acquaintance with Mary Lyon. When he had by great business sa-fell out of a mulberry tree last Mon- I make this gift to all humanity, and skillet in which a tablespoon of butter

This money has now been raised, Mrs. Ella Burton of Crane Creek and when it brings in interest the Col-

He now writes (April '99) that he is so well pleased with what Berea is dophia Mc Collum are to be married ing that he will do the same thing

> In this way Berea will be made able to carry out its great plans for helping all young people toward an edu-

> He is not willing to help any except that he values an education. It does no good to furnish a free lunch."

There will soon be a million young Judge what Dr. Pearsons has done.

Dr. Pearsons always selects for himself the colleges which he will ply. When the news of what he had knife thoroughly before cutting. ter Wednesday, June 7. The next done for Berea a pared an army of day court was convened and the trial subject preside red for Chicago, water in which tough meat or fowls in Baker.

Jackson County Helps.

Congratulations are good, but such letters as this are better. Mr. Truett of Maulden, now in the regular army in Cuba, will be remembered by his many Jackson County friends. copy from a letter which President

BATTERY "I," 2ND ARTILLERY, HAVANA, CUBA, June 11, 1899. Mr. Wm. G. Frost, Berea, Ky.

Dear Friend:-Having heard of your wonderful success in securing the one hundred and fifty thousand dollars in accordance with the pledge of Mr. Pearsons of Chicago, and hearing of his making another pledge of fifty thousand on the same terms, I will say that I will promise to pay to Berea the sum of one hundred dollars ($100) on the same terms as the first pledge.

P'v't ROBERT F. TRUETT.

Seein' Ghosts.

Folks used to tell me scarey tales 'Bout seein' ghosts at night, Things that would utter awful wails An' go dressed up in white.

N' when the creepin' evenin' shade Wuz deepened into black, ve listened 'till those stories made Cold chills run up my back. Once, when I'd been a doin' wrong

'N' sinnin with my might, As I wuz whistlin' right along The road for home at night, had to pass a holler That was haunted, so folks said, N' somethin' seemed to foller Everywhere that I would tread, saw a thing before me A lookin strange 'n' white; An awful fear crep' o'er me

'N' I most died outright! wuz so weak 'n' so afraid, I could but wildly stare, Till my imagination made A mighty demon there! It glared so fiercely o'er me!

It looked-I know not how-Then calmly out before me Walked a neighbor's old, white cow.

When folks do wrong ol' Nick jis' peeps 'Round rocks, 'n' trees 'n' posts; A guilty conscience allus keeps A feller seein' ghosts.

MARION HABOLD FREDERICK.

SPECIAL DEPARTMENTS.

THE HOME.

Edited by MRS. KATE E. PUTNAM, Teacher in

The Spice of Life. An old army song begins "Beans for breakfast Beans for dinner Beans for supper Beans, beans, beans."

After such a diet three times a day and three hundred and sixty five days in the year, the appetite fails. Variety in cooking renders palatable the most common food. Did you ever stop to think that there are over twenty different ways in which potatoes may be prepared and be appetizing?

Eggs are eggs so long as they are boiled and fried, but a perfect omelet may be called an egg-dream. Dreams however are good and bad. The secret of a perfect omelet is to never use more than six for each omegacity made his fortune he selected let. Separate the egg and beat briska few colleges through which he ly with a fork or wire spoon, never might help young people to an edu- with an egg beater. The yolks should be beaten until fosmy. Then add one In the South he selected Berea which tablespoonful of milk for each egg. he visited in '95, and made his first Beat the whites until they will stand pledge. "When Berea will raise $150, alone. Fold the whites into the yel-000 for endowment, I will add $50,000. low adding salt to taste, pour into a the bottom is browned, which can be ascertained by lifting the edge with a cake-turner. Turn one half of the omelet over the other half. Serve upon a hot platter at once.

Useful Hints.

1. Melted butter will not make good cake.

2. A pinch of salt added to the whites of eggs will expedite the beat-

3. Nutmegs should be grated at the blossom end first.

4. The juice of an onion can be extracted by cutting the onion across the grain and grating it. This gives a much more delicate flavor to soups and salads than the chopped onion.

5. The disagreeable ador of boiling cabbage or onions can be avoided by boiling a small quantity of vinegar in a cup 6. Cutting warm bread or cake makes it bad. If it must be cut, heat re boiled makes them tender.

8. Economy is the foad to wealth. 9. Good management is better than a large income

Here are a few health rules. They are credited to a celebrated French physician who says that by observing fault with everybody else. them a person may be perfectly strong, healthy, and beautiful, and will live to a great age. This may be an exaggeration, but they will not harm anyone who follows them.

"Don't drink tea or coffee. "Eat plenty of fruit."

THE SCHOOL.

Edited by Mrs. Eliza H. Yocum, Dean of the

When people go into partnership it is important that each should know his own work and understand his own responsibility.

It is now near the time when all over our hills and valleys work is to begin in the school-houses. Parents and teachers are partners in this business aiming to make good men and Now if this work is to succeed, parents must do some definite things. First. See that the schools begin earlier in the season. Beginning late children are forced to stay at home.

Second. See that your children are there on time the first day and every rious sickness keep them out of school while their class mates go on learning run it is sure to prove the dearest. things that they must do without unless the teacher takes extra time to farmer who has a calf to raise ? The help them.

The teachers are seeing more clear-study for ungraded schools will be a of cows in any neighborhood, the pur-teacher is just as anxious to have the parent can be.

what they do know if parents encourage them to use their best judgment.

If teachers get acquainted with parents and they all consult and help of horses. I know of a county in a each other, the work in each district

You are all aiming at the same thing and you will rejoice together in your work as you see your boys growing wiser and more manly, your girls more earnest and womanly.

Let your school begin early, watch it, visit it, en to you all.

THE FARM.

S. C. MASON, Professor of Horticul

Better Stock. How much more is a good animal worth than a poor one?

Well, of course that depends. There are many kinds of animals raised on the farm, and a colt is worth more than a calf and a calf more than a pig or a lamb. But is not a firstclass colt or calf worth much more women by a process called education. than a scrub, worth more to keep and worth more to sell ! There is but one answer to that question and no one will try to argue for the other side.

Most men, when they have a choice in June or early in July gives a chance between a good article and a poor one to have five months of school before at the same price will take the best; the weather gets so bad and the wa- but if the price is just a little higher ters so high that more than half of the for the better article, though it may be worth ever so much more, how many men do we find who will pay the difference and take the best ? Too many day of the term. Let nothing but se- will take that which seems the cheapest at the time, though in the long Now how does this apply to the milk that the calf will take, the grass he eats, the fodder and corn it takes ly every year that they must have to winter him will be about the same special training for their great work, for the poor, scrub calf as for the high that they must read new books and grade. About the only difference will papers and all the while think about be in the cost of a sire of good build the best ways to teach your children. and first-rate breeding. "The male is Of course the teacher's first duty half the herd", is an old and well provwhen school opens is to put each pu- ed saying among stock breeders, and pil into the classes where he can get when expanded a little it means about the most good. The State Course of this; starting with the common stock great help as a guide. But one must chase of a good bull of any standard know each child and what he can do, breed means a crop of half-blood and that is not always seen at once. calves for this added expense. Now It sometimes happens that the book wait till a trader comes in who is buyin which a pupil has been reading is ing up a bunch of steers to drive so hard that he cannot possibly undown into the Blue Grass to feed, and derstand the words and so cannot see how much better a price he will possibly learn as he would if the book pay for those half-breed steers than were suited to him. If the teacher for the scrubs he finds in the sees some better thing to do than to next valley. More than that, if the use that particular book for a while, good beginning is followed up, the be sure that he is doing it for the real half-blood heifers of that crop will good of the child and not because he soon take the places of the old cows wants to "put him back." A good and then a generation of three-quarter teacher is just as anxious to have the bred calves is the result, and now you children get on in their work as any

The farmer with that grade of stock for sale never has to hunt the market. It is true that teachers do not know The buyers have such stock looked up everything, but they can do more with and bargained for before it is ready to move, while the owner of the poor stock is hunting a buyer to take his what is true of horned cattle is true western state where a few years ago will go on in a way very different from and often of poor quality. A few what we see when everybody finds wide awake men saw that there must be a great demand for heavy draft horses for the city markets and began to import Percheron and Clydesdale stallions. As soon as it became known that handsome young draft horses were-being raised in that county, buyers flocked in and took them out by car-loads and thousands of dollars of wealth were added to the farmers' bank accounts

(Concluded next week.)

BEREA COLLEGE

Over 20 teachers, 700 students (from 20 states), 16,000 books in the Library.

DEPARTMENTS.

For those NOT sufficiently advanced to get a teacher's certificate:

I. Trade Schools: Carpentry, Housework, Printing—two years.

II. Model Schools, preparing for Normal and the advanced courses.

For those sufficiently advanced to get a teacher's certificate:

III. Farming and Agriculture—two years.

IV. Domestic Science—Sewing, Cooking, etc.—two years.

V. Normal Course for teachers—three years, with practice teaching.

VI. Academy Course—four years, fitting for College, for business and for life.

For those more advanced:
VII. College Courses—Classical, Philosophical, and Literary.

Adjunct Departments:

VIII. Music - Reed Organ, Choral (free), Vocal, Piano, Theory IX. Berea General Hospital—Two years' course in the care of the sick.

Berea places the best education in reach of all. It is not a money-making institution. Its instruction is a free gift. It aims to help those who value education and will help themselves, and charges a small incidental fee to meet expenses of the school apart from instruction. Students must also pay for their Board. Expenses for term (12 weeks) may be brought within $24, about half of which must be paid in advance.

The school is endorsed by Baptists, Congregationalists, Disciples, Methodists, Presbyterians, and good people of all denominations. There are no saloons in Berea. For information or friendly advice address the Vice-President, GEO. T. FAIRCHILD, LL. D., Berea, Ky.

FALL TERM OPENS SEP. 13.-WINTER TERM DEC. 13, 1899